

DRAGON SLAYER

from the album: Luminous

V1. I will be your protector I'll be your port in a storm
And when the cold winds of winter blow,
I'll share my fire to keep you warm
I will deflect all the arrows
By those who would bring you down
I'm ready to stand and be counted,
You'll find me here on solid ground

Chorus: I will slay dragons for you, yes I will be your white knight
I'll don the armour of battle for I am ready to fight
I will slay dragons of all shades be they black purple or green
I will slay dragons for you dear, 'n
I'm the best dragon slayer you ever seen

V2. Those dragons wear many guises they can be sneaky so and so's
With flashing eyes and smiles that charm you,
And all dressed up in sassy clothes
They'll tell you lies and tall tall stories,
They'll steal your power and your dreams
And then they'll laugh while you're not looking
And think they've trapped you in their schemes

Bridge: Now there are those who claim that dragons
Are purely mythology
Fiction and imagination
Products of human fantasy
But they ain't never faced those critters
Exposed, naked to the skin
By any other name, there burns the flame
To quench your fire within
